

Left tool bar(2)

This tool bar contains four buttons (from left to right)

Open welcome screen

This button opens the welcome screen that comes up when you first open the program

Save

Saves your model. If this is the first time you have saved you will have to chose a file name and location, after that when you save that file will be updated.

Undo

Undos your last action.

Redo

Undos your last undo

Modes tool bar(3)

This tool bar contains the buttons for the three modes. This tool bar will stay up in all the modes. (from left to right)

Building mode

This mode is where you build your model, it is also the default when you start the program.

View mode

In this mode you can view and take a screen shot your model against a backdrop you can also explode you model.

The buttons on the top left of the of the screen in view mode (from left to right)

Take screen shot

Takes a screen shot of your model with the background.

Explode the model

Explodes the model and puts it back together.

Change the background

This button cycles through the different backgrounds

Building guide mode

In this mode you can view a building guide for your model, you can also make a HTML version of the guide.

The button on the top left of the screen in building guide mode

Generate HTML building guide

After this button is pressed you will be asked where you want to save your building guide after that an HTML building guide generated on that location.

The buttons on the top middle of the screen in building guide mode (from left to right)

Go to previous brick

Goes to the previous brick.

Go to next brick

Goes to the next brick.

Replay brick

Replays the placing of the current brick.